

APPENDIX A

REFERENCES AND ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

1. Department of the Army.

- a. AR 414-15, Military Construction. Army (MCA) Program Development.
- b. AR 415-17, Cost Estimating for Military Programming.
- c. AR 690-400, Chapter 410, Training.
- d. AR 690-400, Chapter 413, Identification of Management Positions.
- e. AR 690-900, Chapter 920, Executive Development
- f. AR 690-950, Career Management.
- g. TM5-800-4, Programming Cost Estimates for Military Construction.
- h. DA Pamphlet 690-43, A Supervisor's Guide to Career Development and Counseling for Career Program Employees.
- i. Army Civilian Training, Education and Development System (ACTEDS) for Engineers and Scientists (Resources and Construction) as issued by Army-wide memorandum dated 3 December 1990. Additional copies are available from the local personnel servicing office.

2. U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

- a. ER 350-1414, Proponent Sponsored Engineer Corps Training (PROSPECT) Program.
- b. ER 350-1-416, Headquarters, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (HQUSACE) Centrally and Locally Sponsored Long-Term Training (LTT) Program.
- c. ER 690-1-958, Army Civilian Career Development Program for Engineers and Scientist (Resources and Construction).

e. CEHND Pamphlet 350-1-1, The Purple Book, Managers and Supervisors Training Handbook.

f. USACE Suppl to AR 690-400, 410, 430, Employee Performance and Utilization Training.

3. The American Society of Landscape Architects (ASIA). The American Society of Landscape Architects, 4401 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20008, is an additional resource for information on intern-landscape architect procedures.

4. The Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards (CLARB). "Application and Instructions for a CLARB Council Record" is available free of charge from the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards, Suite 110, 12700 Fair Lakes Circle, Fairfax, VA 22033.